This paper presents the authors' work with solar water heaters. The paper is useful. Some inputs are given to improve the quality:

- Some grammatical errors are spotted. Please rectify them.
- Please include the most important quantitative data in the abstract
- How did you get the collectors? Were they manufactured in your lab? Or did you purchase off the shelf?
- Are the data in Table 1 and Figure 4 taken from ref [1]? If so, please indicate clearly at the captions.
- Page 8: What do you mean by "same climate conditions"?
- It is good to compare the efficiency of your collectors with other published data for benchmarking.
- How to confirm that the performance improvement is purely due to the change in the shape and not other factors? This is particularly important because the improvement is relatively small and no simulation prediction is given in the manuscript. The reviewer thinks some other factors like positioning, manufacturing quality difference, etc. contribute to the performance difference.

Dear Author,

Please find your paper in our publication template. We found difficulties to set your figures, especially figures 6 and 7 and figure 9. We also request you to change the colors line with different patterns since we print the journal book in black and white. We are afraid the readers are unable to read the differences in your figures.

Thank you for your support and cooperation.
