To Whom It Concerns:

I am writing to confirm the invaluable service of Seniwati, Ph.D. as a reviewer for International Journal of Sociology and Social Policy. Their input in evaluating the following manuscript has been invaluable, namely "Are we Really Supporting a Gender "Differently"? A Policy Perspective on Women Entrepreneurship". This ensured that the journal met strict guidelines regarding factual accuracy and discovery of new and compelling information. With their help, we were able to continue to provide highly informative articles that adhere to our rigorous standards.

Respectfully,
