Dear Dr. Muhammad Yunus Amran,

Greetings.

You have submitted the manuscript as a case report, however the Abstract and Introduction of the case report is missing. Please give an Abstract and Introduction for the case report. You may choose to have the manuscript processed as a Clinical Image in which case, Abstract and introduction will not be required

We again thank you for submitting your valuable work to International Journal of Case Reports and Images (IJCRI).

We are really sorry for the mistype of our manuscript submission, our manuscript should be the clinical image. Again we really sorry for this inconvenience situation.

Should we have to resubmission our manuscript with the Clinical Image?

Again thank you very much.

Dear Author,

Congratulations!!

It is a pleasure to inform you that your manuscript has been accepted for publication in International Journal of Case Reports and Images (IJCRI). We will be sending you the page proof of your manuscript before final publication of the article.

Early View Version

The Early View version of your manuscript will be published on the journal website within 72 hours. The Early View version is an online published version of an accepted article before final publication. A manuscript is published as Early View Article as soon as it is accepted for publication.

Before final publication, the manuscript will be sent to the authors for page proof corrections followed by content check, copyediting/proofreading and content formatting to conform to journal's requirements.

As soon as the Early View version is published, we will send you a PDF of the article for your personal use.

Article Publication Charges

Authors are required to pay nominal Article Publication Charges before final publication of their accepted manuscript in the journal. The Article Publication Charges are on average 2 to 4 times lower than those charged by other journals. You will receive a separate email from the Billing Department with details of how to make the payment. The charges will include all applicable fee waivers and discounts. Please make the payment early to expedite the processing of your manuscript.

As soon as we receive the publication charges, we will send you a copy of the Author Agreement Form. We request you to send the Author Agreement Form signed by the corresponding author.

We thank you once again for submitting your valuable work to International Journal of Case Reports and Images (IJCRI).

With warm regards

Editor
