Dear Mrs. Hariati:

Peer review has been completed for manuscript ID JSPN-OM-20-067 entitled "Indonesian mothers' beliefs on caring practices at home for preterm babies after hospital discharge: A qualitative study" which you submitted to the Journal for Specialists in Pediatric Nursing.

Reviewers agreed about the importance of this topic, and I would like to invite you to revise and resubmit the manuscript based on their suggestions for clarification and refinement. Comments from the reviewers are included at the bottom of this letter.

Please NOTE that it will be important to include with your revision a detailed response to each review comment. I recommend that you compose your response in a Word document and then paste it into the Response to Reviewers text box when you submit your revision or type in "See the document file name" with my response to the reviewers" and upload the document as a "supplementary file."

Please also show edits/changes in your main document text file, as well as tables and figures, by using a different color font (i.e., red) for new material.

To revise your manuscript, log into <https://mc.manuscriptcentral.com/jspn> and enter your Author Center, where you will find your manuscript title listed under "Manuscripts with Decisions." Click on the "Manuscripts with Decisions" link and a window will open on the bottom of your screen. Identify the manuscript that you would like to revise, and under "Actions," click on "Create a Revision." Your manuscript number will then be appended to denote a revision.

You will be unable to make your revisions on the originally submitted version of the manuscript. Instead, revise your manuscript using a word processing program and save it on your computer. Please ensure that your manuscript is formatted according to the American Psychological Association (APA) sixth edition (2010) guidelines, especially regarding the in-text citations and the reference list.

Once the revised manuscript is prepared, you can upload it and submit it in the same way that you submitted the original manuscript. IMPORTANT: Your original files are available to you when you upload your revised manuscript. Please delete the original files before uploading your revised files. (If you have not made changes to the separate tables or figures file, you may leave these original files.)

During the process of submitting your revision, you will be able to respond to the comments made by the reviewers in the space provided. You can use this space to document any changes you make to the original manuscript. In order to expedite the processing of the revised manuscript, please be as specific as possible in your response to the reviewers.

Because we are trying to facilitate timely publication of manuscripts submitted to the Journal for Specialists in Pediatric Nursing, your revised manuscript should be uploaded as soon as possible. If it is not possible for you to submit your revision within 6 weeks, we may have to consider the revised paper as a new submission.

It is important for you to know that resubmitting your manuscript does not guarantee eventual acceptance, however the invitation to resubmit certainly indicates our continued interest in the manuscript. Upon resubmission, the manuscript will be reviewed by at least one of the original reviewers.
